

We appose the subject petition submitted by Verizon Wireless because of the cost to both small and large firms and individuals to change their wireless number when ever they desire to change providers because of price or service. The cost for printing, mailing, etc. only adds to the cost of doing business in a competitive situation with added cost passed on to the consumer. This is a blatant attempt by Verizon to "strong arme" customers to stay with their service.